

The 1st Asian Cognitive-Behaviour Therapy Conference will be held at The Chinese University, Shatin NT, Hong Kong, May 29 & 30, 2006, in conjunction with symposia on

Buddhist Psychology & Positive Psychology

(convened by the Transcultural Society for Clinical Meditation)

Topics include the interface and confluence of Positive Psychology (PP) – Buddhist Psychology (BP) complementing Cognitive-Behaviour Therapy (CBT)

The Symposium on Positive Psychology will be introduced through an Invited Address by

Dr. Samuel M.Y. Ho, Associate Professor

The Symposium on Buddhist Psychology will be introduced through an Invited Address by

Dr. Maurits G.T. Kwee, Hon. Professor who on May 28, 2006 will also conduct a one day workshop, entitled

Toward a New Buddhist Psychology: Moving Beyond Theravada and Mahayana

To attend the conference or a workshop, please register as indicated in the accompanying brochure

If you wish to present a paper on CBT, please send your abstract to asiancbt@psy.uq.edu.au before March 1, 2006

If you wish to present a paper on BP or on PP, please send your abstract to dr.k.t.kaku@planet.nl before March 1, 2006

 We hope to welcome you in Hong Kong *****

郭